

Project: Peckham Library, London

Material:
Gladstone 100/10
Cable Mesh

Installation:
Cable Mesh
Tension System

Gladstone 100/10 architectural cable mesh installed as feature cladding at Peckham Library, London.

Part of this unique award-winning design involved the installation of feature lighting which transforms the mesh into an ethereal blue shimmering curtain at night.

Peckham Library was designed by Alsop and Störmer and won the Stirling Prize for Architecture.
